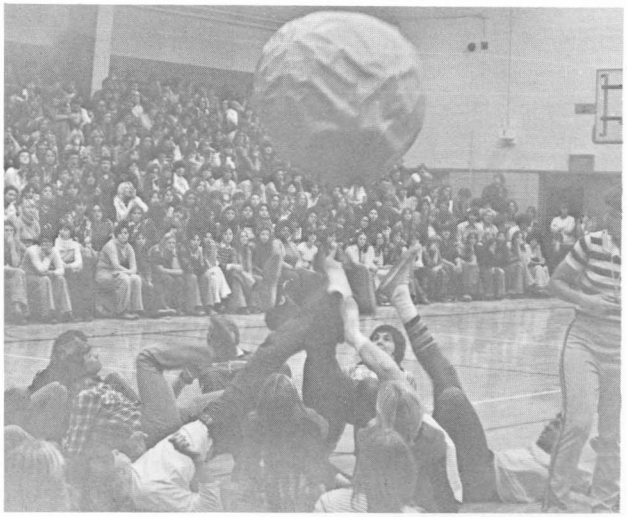
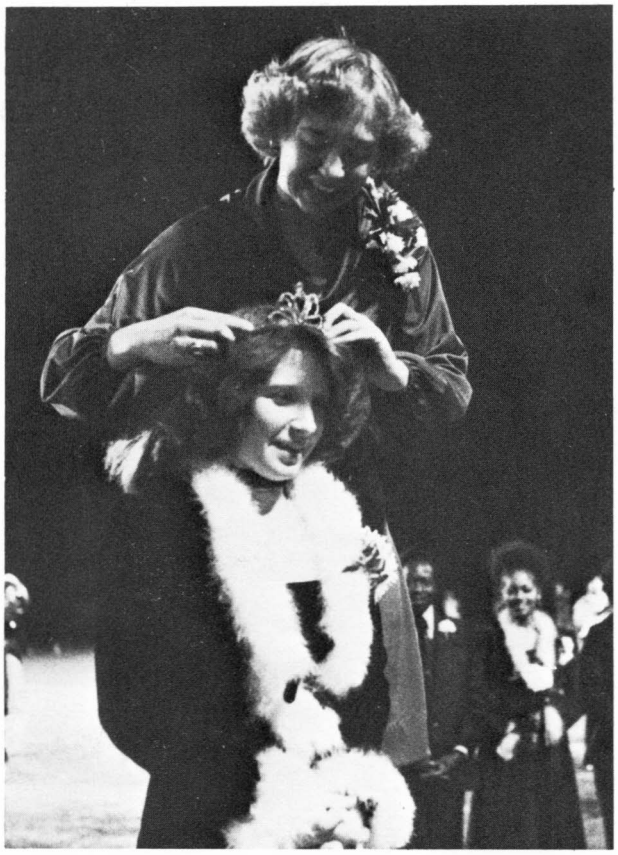
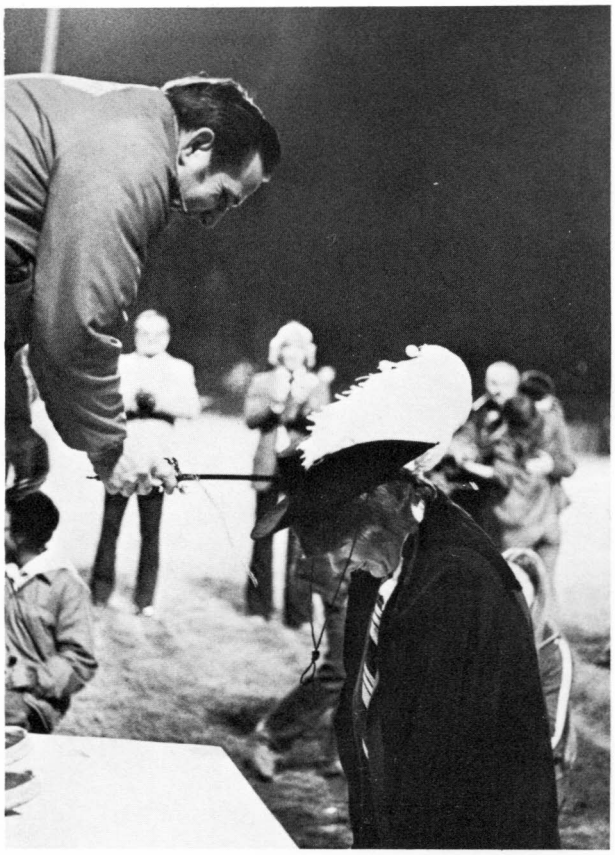
Homecoming 1977

Homecoming 1977 marked the fifteenth anniversary of homecoming at CHS. One of the main goals of the student council during the week of activities is to get as many students involved as possible. As you can see, Homecoming 1977 did just that!



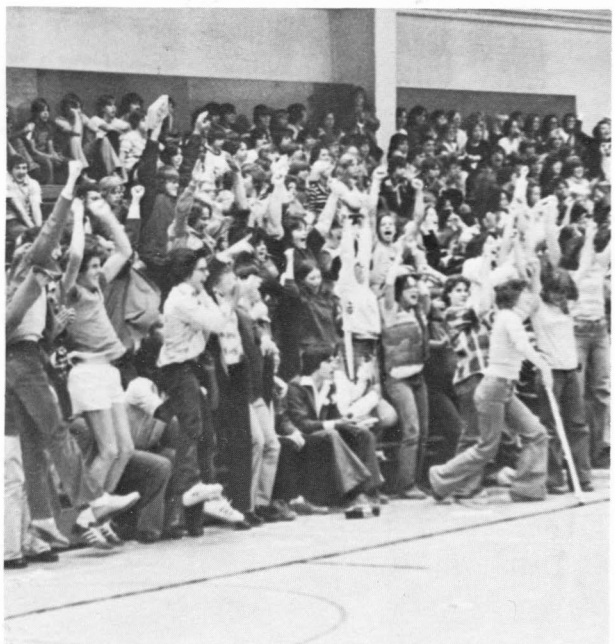
Many of the old traditions of homecoming were broken with the establish of the King and Queen Royality. King Matt Doyle and Queen Wendy Gault began a new tradition with the climax of another memorable homecoming at Carrollton.

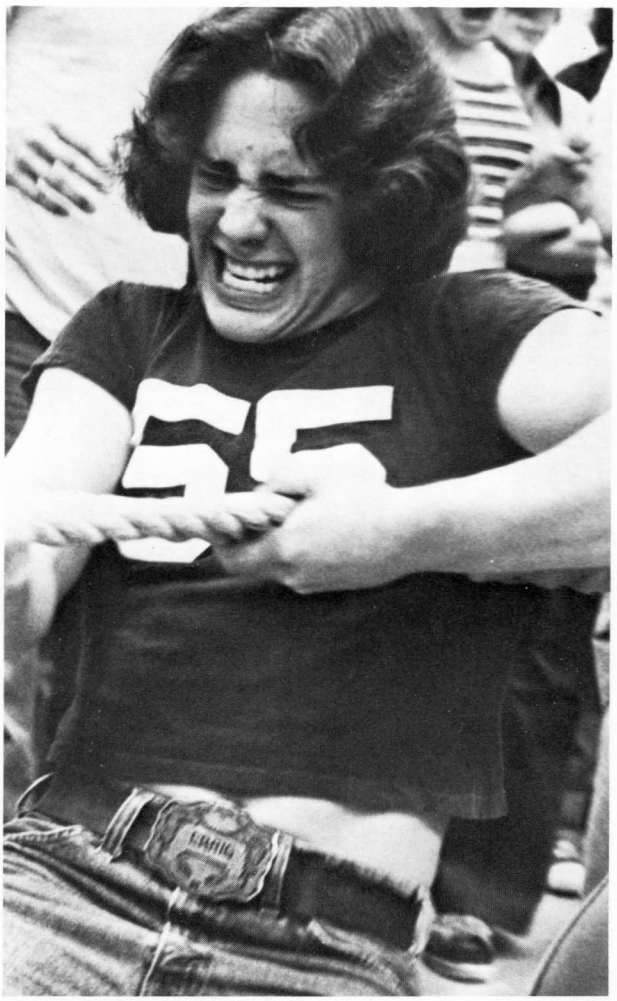


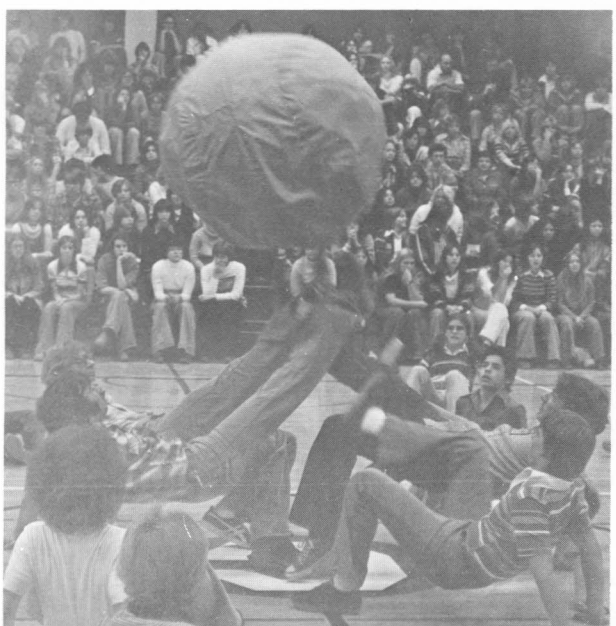


"Tonight's The Night"

During the pep assembly the seniors capture the pepjug (below) while the juniors and the sophomores (lower left) battle for honors in crab scoccor. Diane practices (lower right) for the halftime show and 'Muscles' Opperman (right) seems determined to pull the entire freshman class over to his side.







Remember the girls tug-o-war (left)? And the parade has always been one of the highlights of the week. A lot of effort was put into enjoying the week and preparing for the big night.

TOP: George prays for a Cavalier victory.
CENTER LEFT: CHS's first "beauty salon" class.
RIGHT: John has good form in the water balloon throwing contest.
BOTTOM. Rich's hobby is sitting on water balloons.

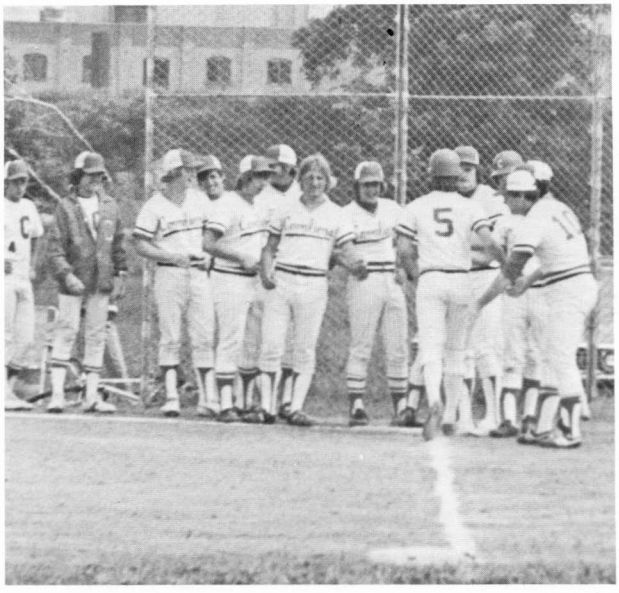
The 1977 version of the Cavalier baseball team almost 'did it all' in taking the NBC crown, sweeping the district championship, taking the regional title before dropping a semifinal game in the state tournament.

1977 Cavalier Baseball

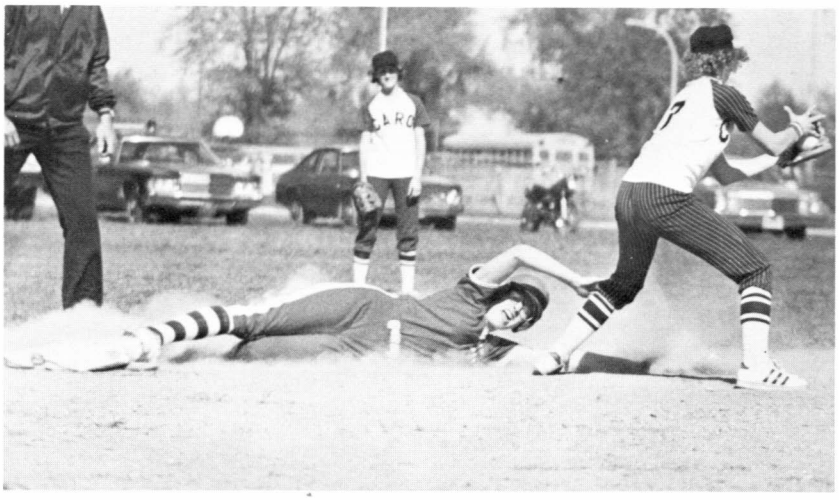
Kyle Spiekerman led the Cavalier pitching on his way to All-State honors.

Freshman Steve Woodrow swings a strong bat in the Cav's NBC championship game.



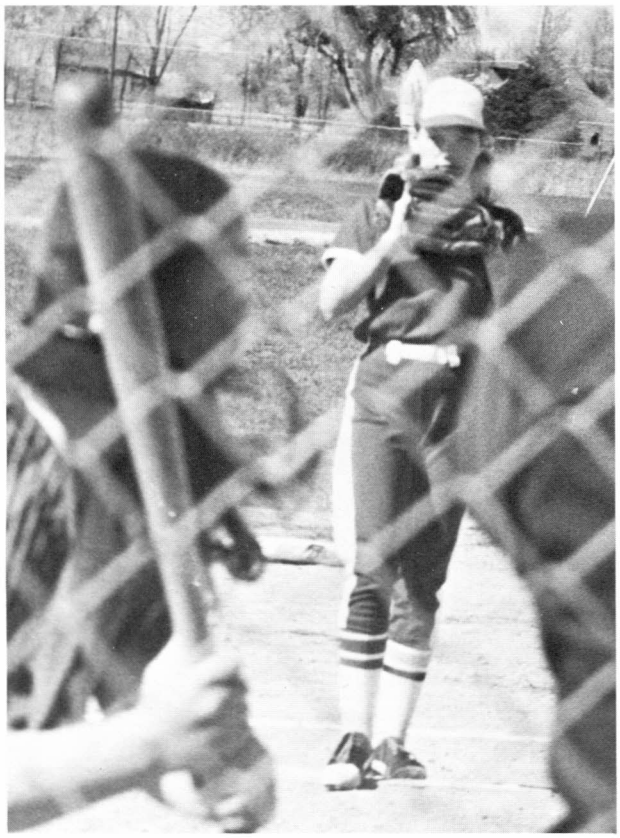
The Cavalier team awaits the score of the game's first homer.

A wild throw allows CHS to advance runners.

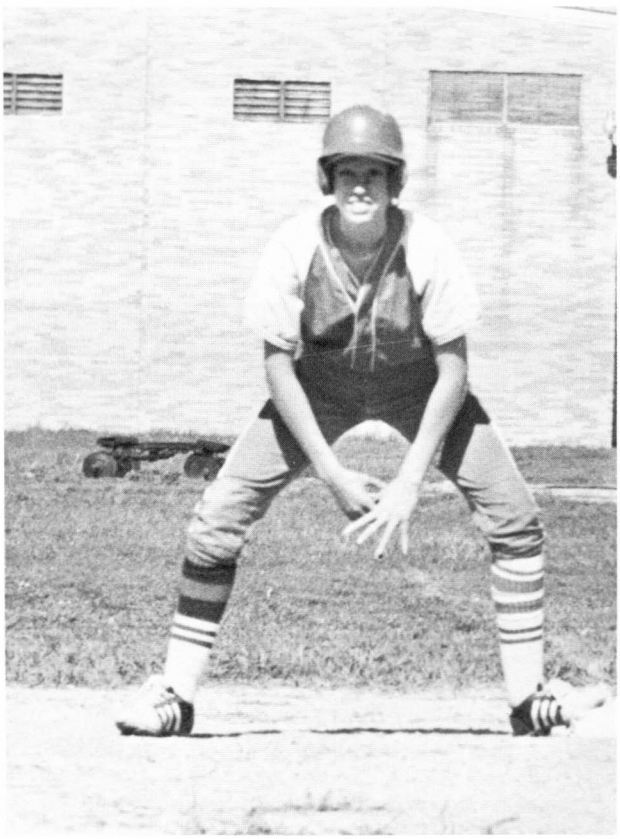


With hustle like the action above, the Cavaliers took the regional title in 1977.

1977 Softball Regional Champs



Michelle Fischer led the team with some strong pitching and fine hitting.



Ellen Petersen concentrates on the batter while on first.

Freshman Sharon Sawyers tags a Garber player to end the inning.

Ellen teases a hopeful baserunner.

1977 Track Looks To The Future

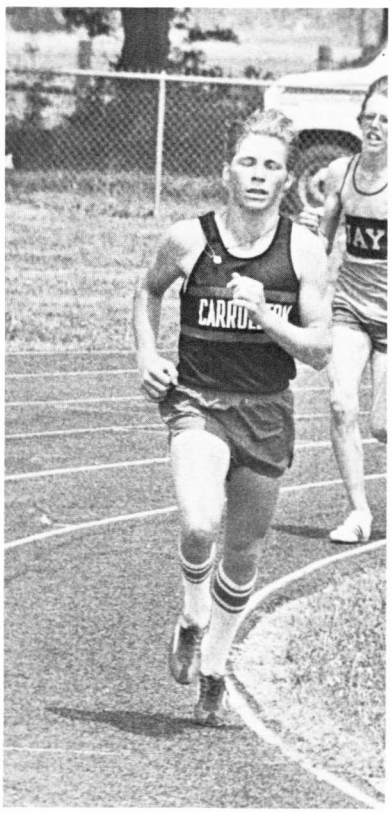
The Cavaliers place eight trackmen in the regional competition to advance to the state finals.

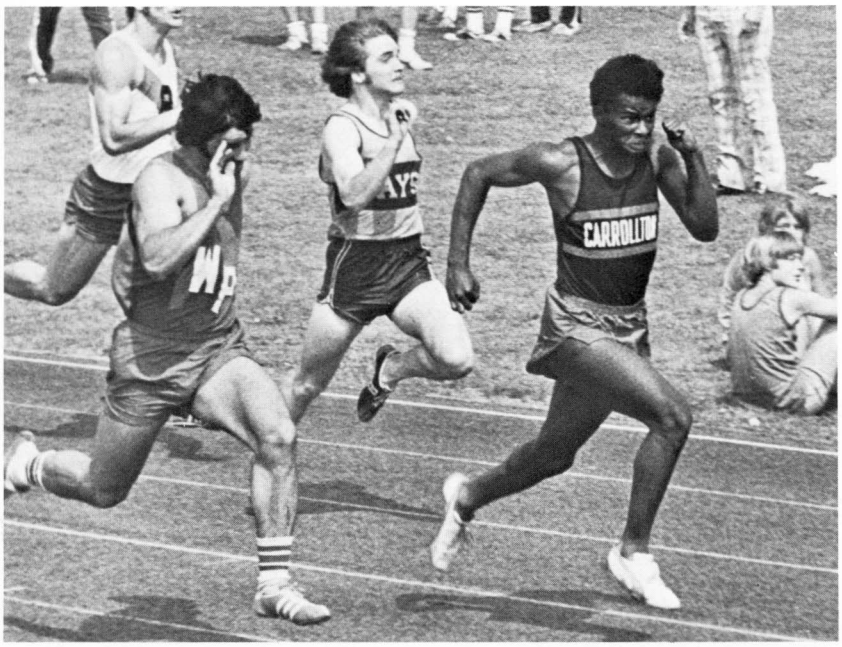
John Galarno, Scott Brady, Dean Kuschinsky, Bob Emeott, Clyde Webb all finished in the top five at those regionals with John and Scott placing first in the Two-Mile and Longjump respectively.



Regional champ, John Galarno leads coming around the final turn.

Bob Emeott breaks the tape in the 880-relay.

Dean puts all he's got into a good jump.



Clyde Webb sets the pace in winning his heat of the 100-yard dash at regionals.

Scott Brady receives a pass from Dean Kuschinsky in setting a CHS record in the 880-relay.

Bob Emeott established a record in the new event for 1977, 300-yard low hurdles.

CHS trackmen receive their medals for a first place finish.

Cindy Woodrow earned All-State honors in the two-mile to become one of two girls to earn the berth for the first time in CHS track. Roxanne Baker (right) sets to throw in her event.

1977 Track Boasts All Staters

Freshman Lori Gnatkowski captured the NBC hurdles championship at Garber.

The 1977 girls track team rewrote the track records at CHS. In all, 8 of the 13 records were broken on route to a very promising season.

Two girls worked their way to All-State honors. Ellen Petersen place eighth and Cindy Woodrow recovered from a bump by another competitor to place sixth.

Rita Petersen adds another to her long list of accomplishments in CHS track by setting the high jump standard of 5'2".

Cindy Diefenbach receives a baton pass from her teammate in her leg of the 880-yard relay which set another mark. Cindy also holds the school record for the 100-yard dash.

The sight for the Spartan Relays was a good background for CHS to finish fourth among some of the state's best track teams to begin the season.

Varsity Boasts Best Record In Eleven Years

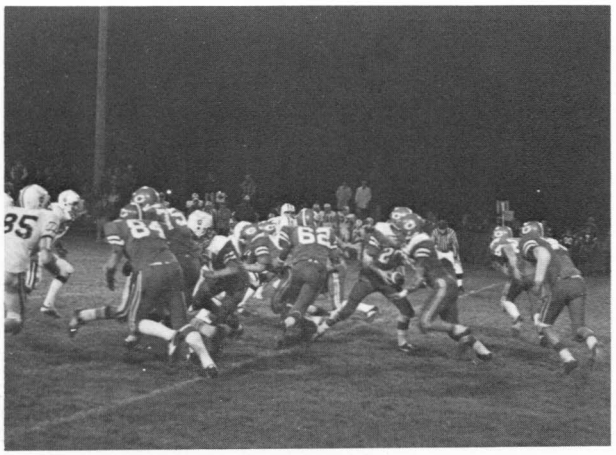
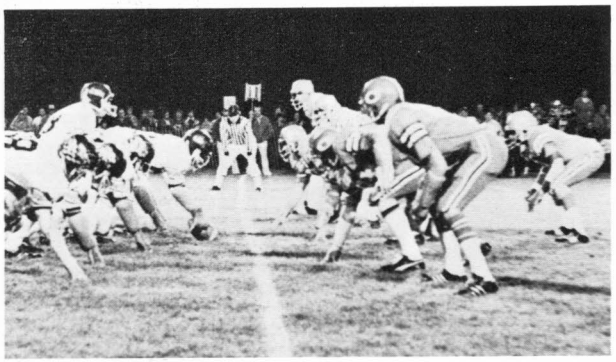
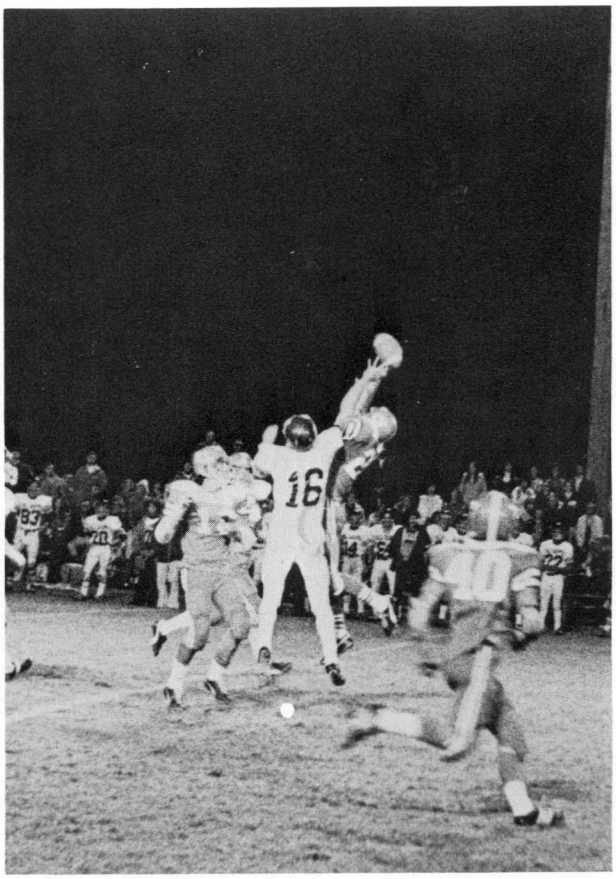
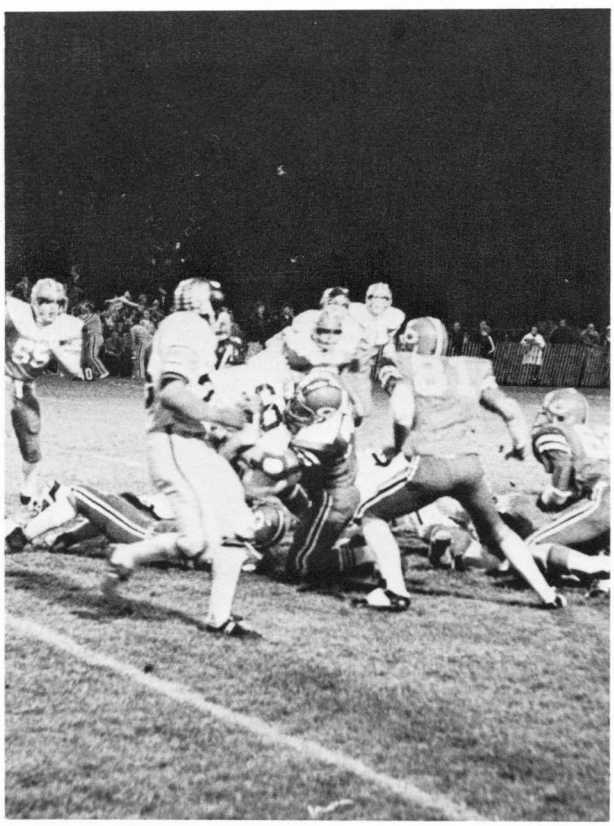
Halfback Bob Emeott (above) moves to avoid a tackle. On the receiving end of a pass is end George Gulliver.







An offensive play developes (upper left). The Cavalier defense awaits the snap. (left) And the 'D' comes through. (lower left) Kuschinsky leaps high in an attempt to pull down an interception.



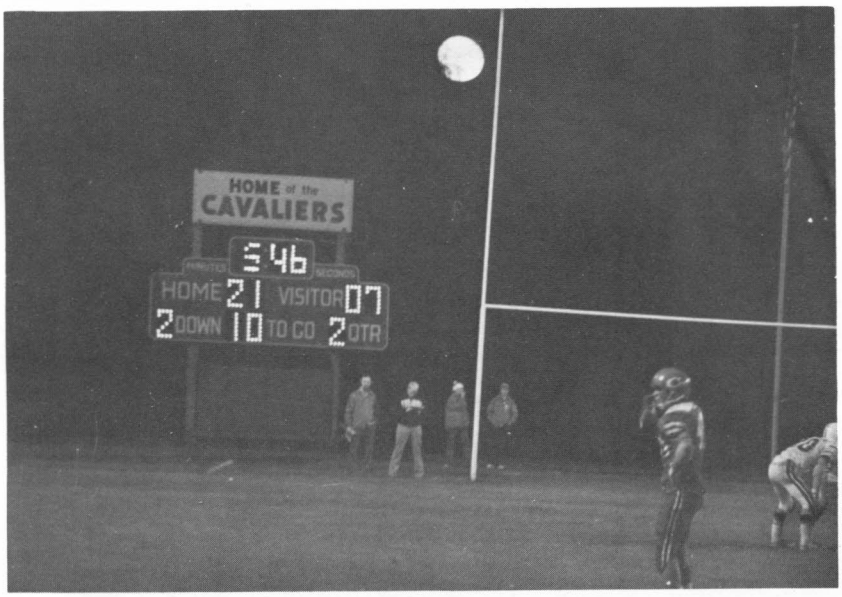
The 1977 football team provided an exciting season for its fans. A few injuries and a last minute loss to BC All Saints stopped any playoff hopes but still did not dim too much the highlights of the second best football record in CHS history.

CHS was led by five All Conference players in Jim Cronk, Dwayne Nichols, Bob Emeott, Steve Woodrow, and Bill Larkin. Tim Dati, Dan Partlow, and George Gulliver were voted Honorable Mention.

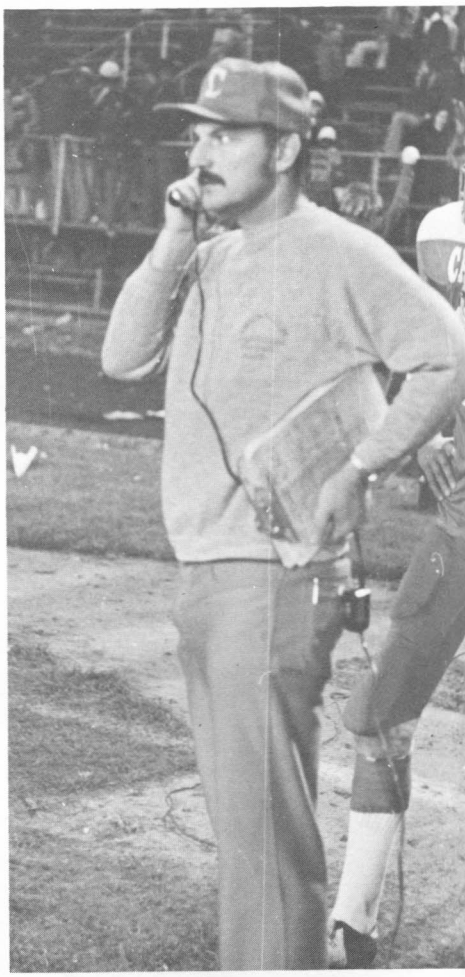
The Cavalier's accepted the challange of the toughest class C schedule in the state. The schools consisted of five class B and four class C opponents with two of these making the playoffs.

A record of 6-2-1 is the best in eleven years and the second best in CHS history. Stacking up the competition, many believe this the best team ever assembled at CHS.

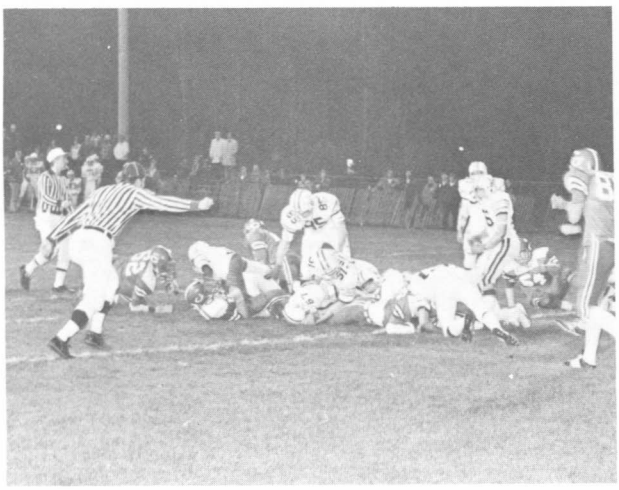
Every team has its own character. To be successful, a team has to be together and we were fortunate to have great leadership on our team. This was the key to our season.



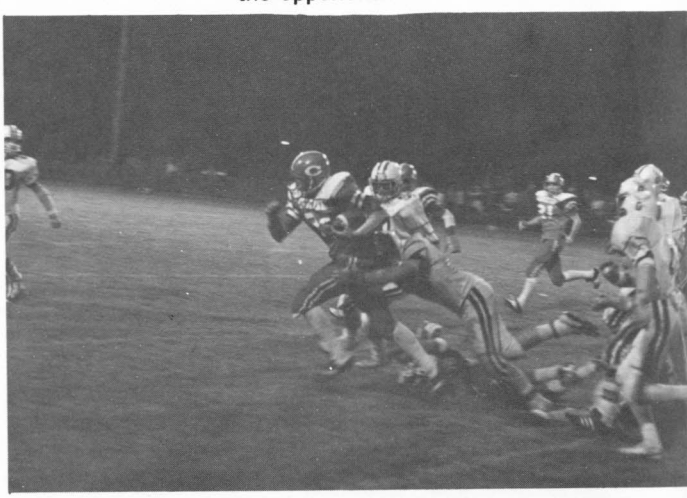
The scoreboard tells the story. CHS tied a point output record this night with 47 points.



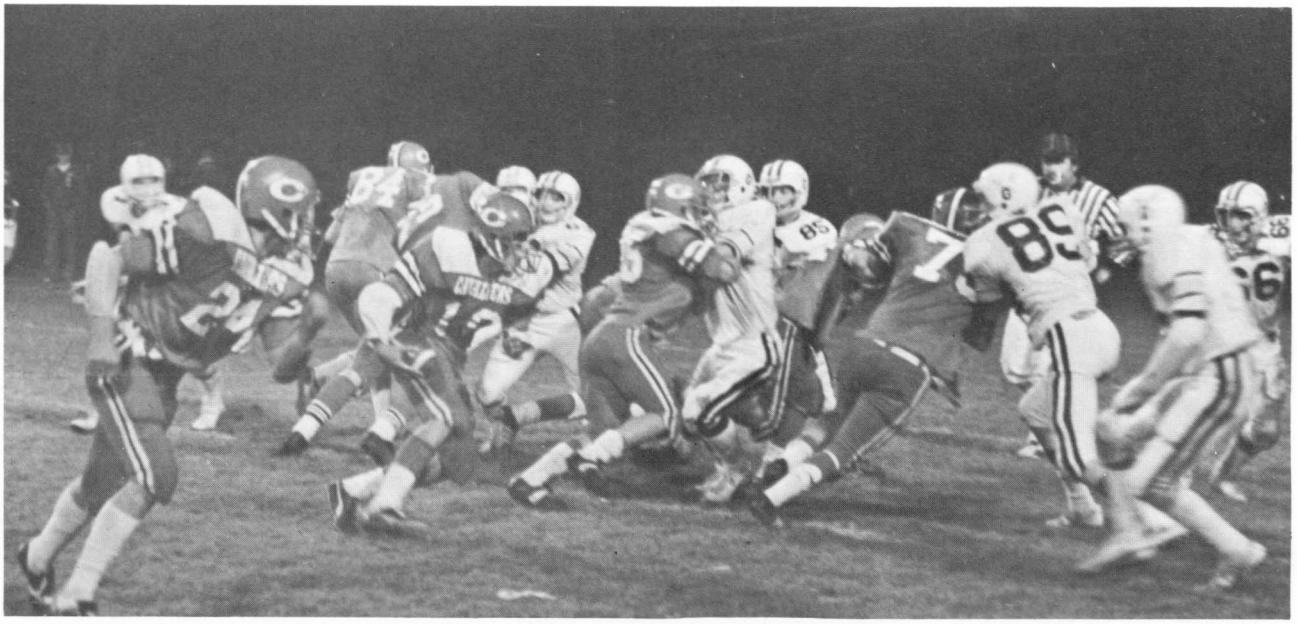
Coach Etienne talks to the observers looking for a weakness in the opponents.



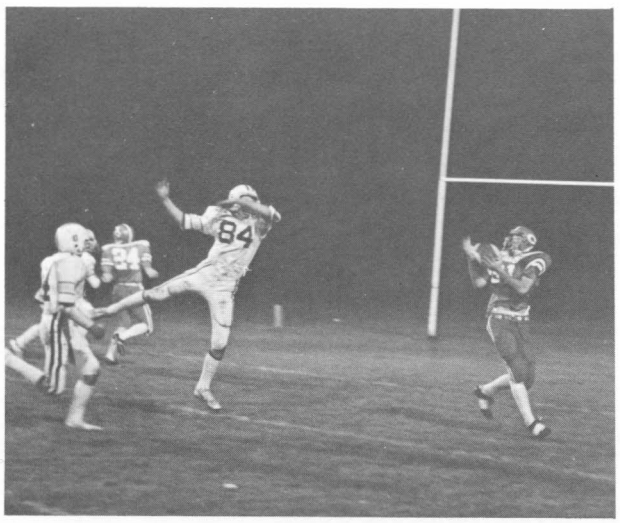
CHS scores another TD in its romp over rival Gladwin.

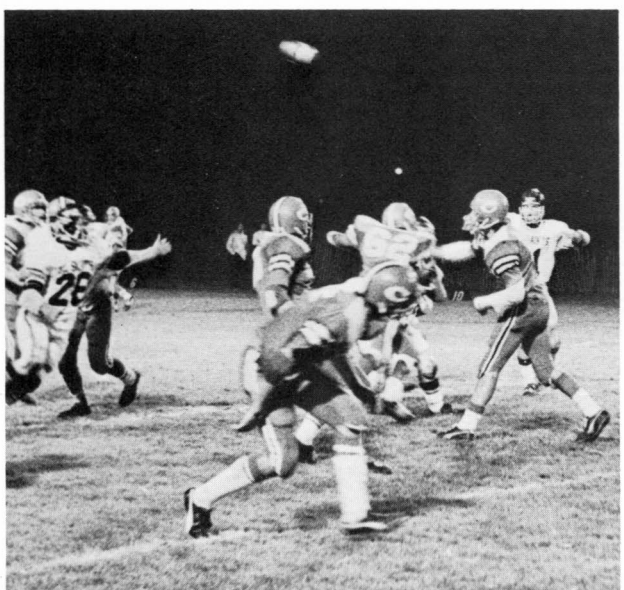


Scott Brady drags the opponent for a few more yards.



The offense opens up the lines as Bob Emeott sprints for the first down.





Steve Woodrow hauls down a pass and takes it in for the score. (up left) Dean Kuschinsky lets fly an aerial attempt. (left) Leading rusher Dan Partlow (above) is dropped but not after a good gain.

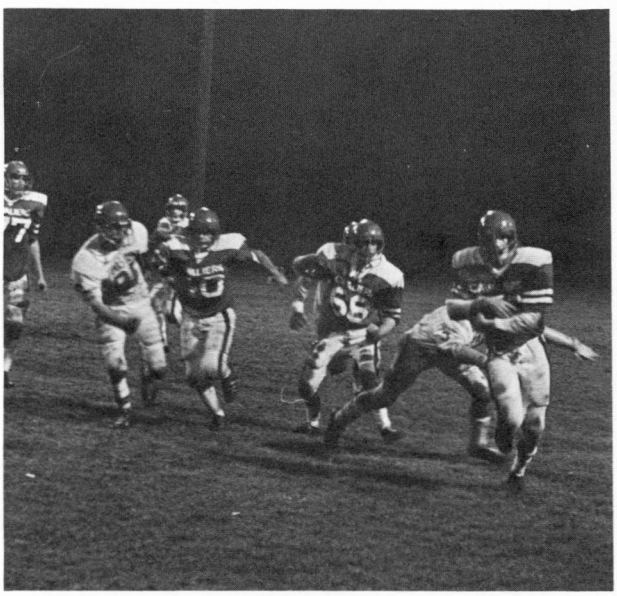
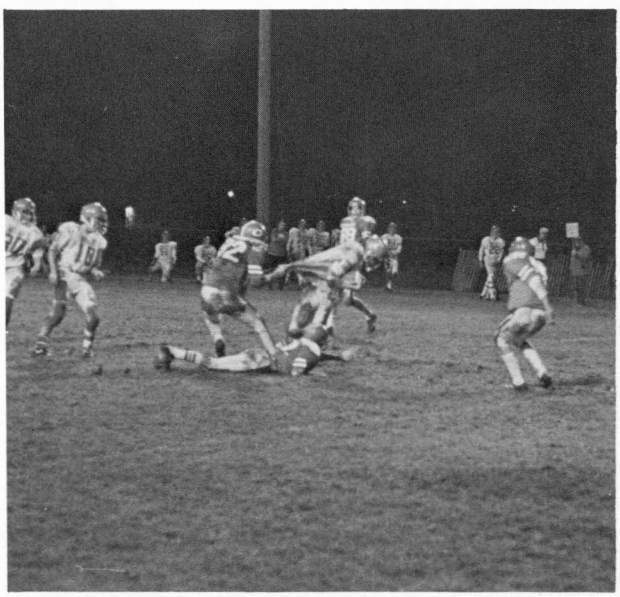
JV Gains Needed Experience



The JV offense turns the corner to put six on the board . . .



. . . while the defense closes the door on the opponents.

1977 Golf Finds The Courses Rough

1977 JV Golf: (l. to r.) Don Batkoski, Steve Leahy, Tom Smith, Brian Rombalski, Bob Krueger, coach Harold Compau.

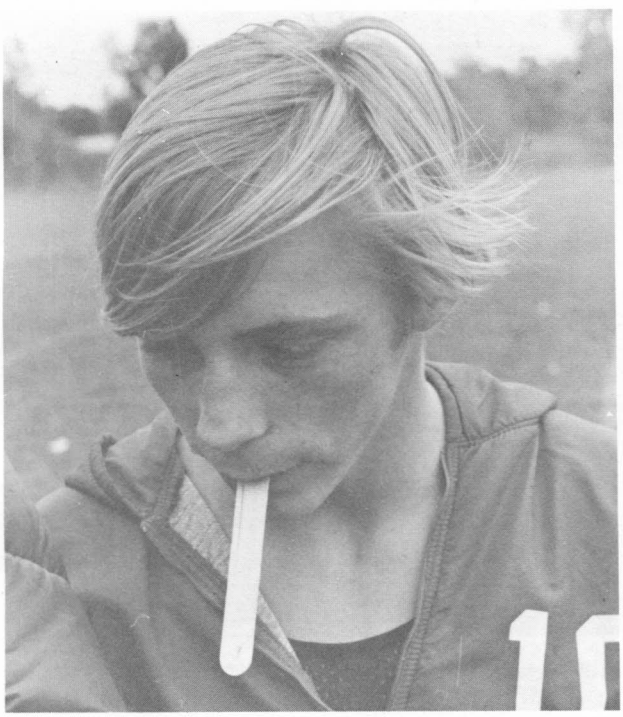
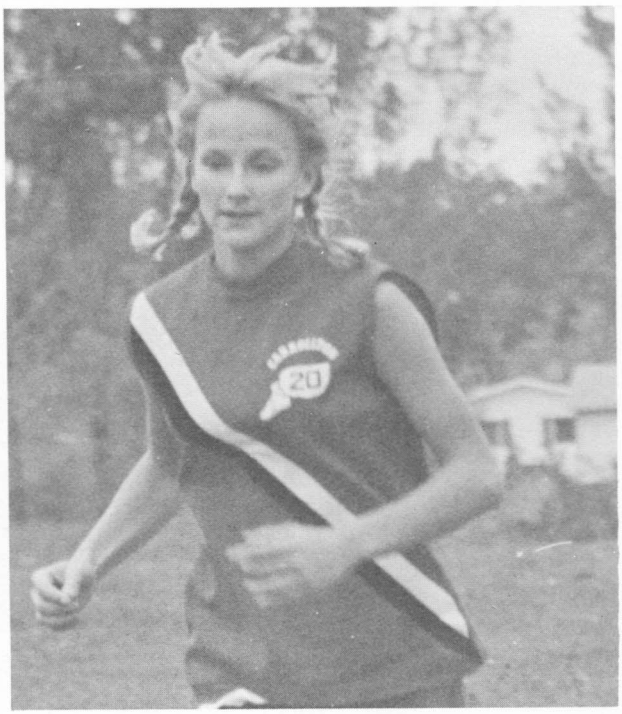
Cross Country Enjoys Satisfying Season

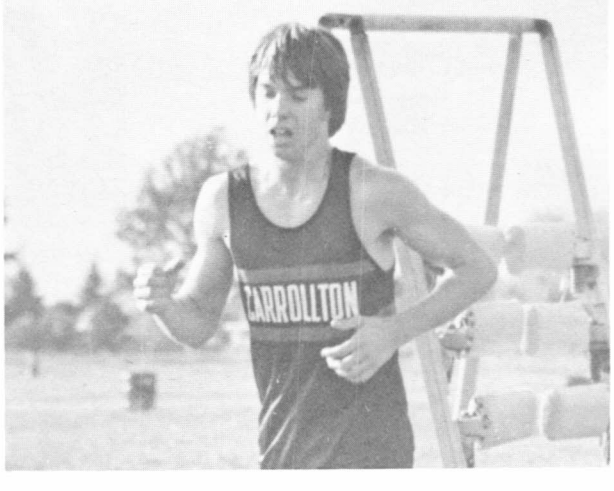




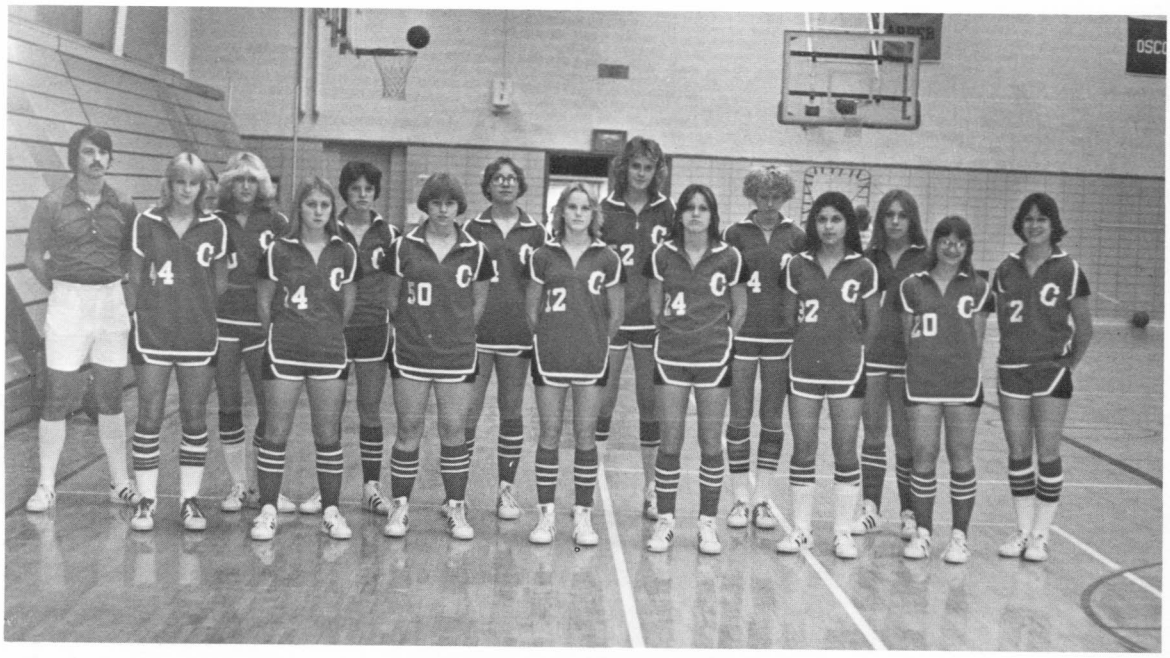
This is the first year CHS has ever had girls cross-country. Cindy Woodrow and Kay Martyn led the girls to an undefeated dual meet season. Cindy also ran to Michigan's Class C all-state honors. The rest of the team includes; Ann Dvorak, Angie Beni, Julie Roethlisberger, and Kim Carey.

Cav guy harriers were led by John Galarno and Kevin Blazejewski. Terry Buse, Karl Zechmeister and Dave Guzman made up the rest of the team.

John and Kevin finished third and sixth at regionals and John completed the season by earning all-state honors.

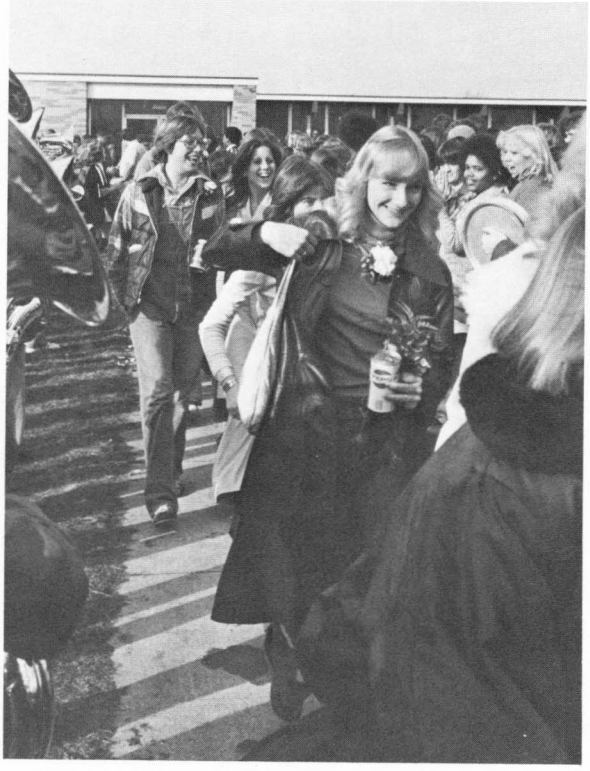


John and Cindy represented CHS well as they earned All-State status (opposite page).



1977 CAVALIER VARSITY BASKETBALL coach Gary Zimmerman, Cindy Woodrow, Pam Berkobien, Lynn Feriend, Sharon Sawyers, Laura Collison, Rita Petersen, Lori Gnatkowski, Cyndi Parrish, Dawn Schrader, Ellen Petersen, Anna Soliz, Krys Nuerminger, Robin Dupuis, Kay Martyn.

Cavalier Girls Capture A Lifetime Of Memories



We Put Our Hearts Into It . . .

The phrase above really describes what happened at CHS during the past women's season. The varsity squad worked their way to the state championship game held for the first time at MSU's Jenison Field House.

Despite dropping a decision to the eventual champs, the ladies were champs themselves in piling up a remarkable 24-4 win-loss record. This record is by far the best in the short eight year history of girls' basketball.

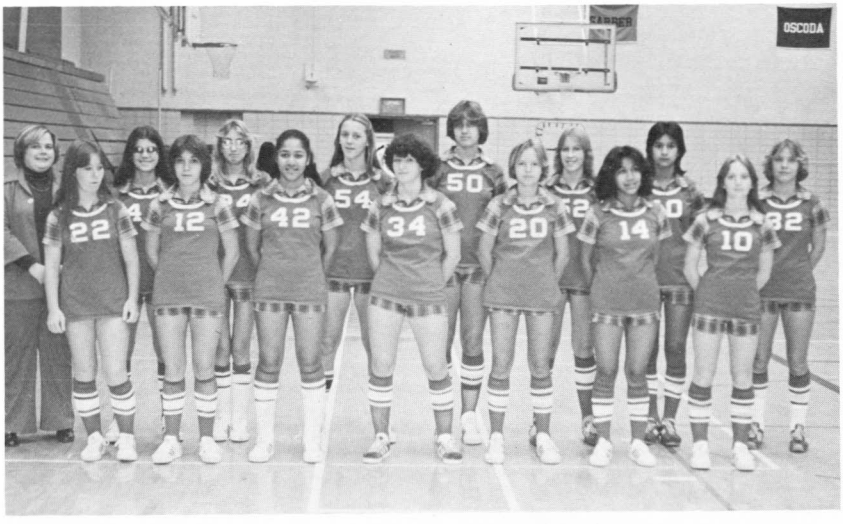
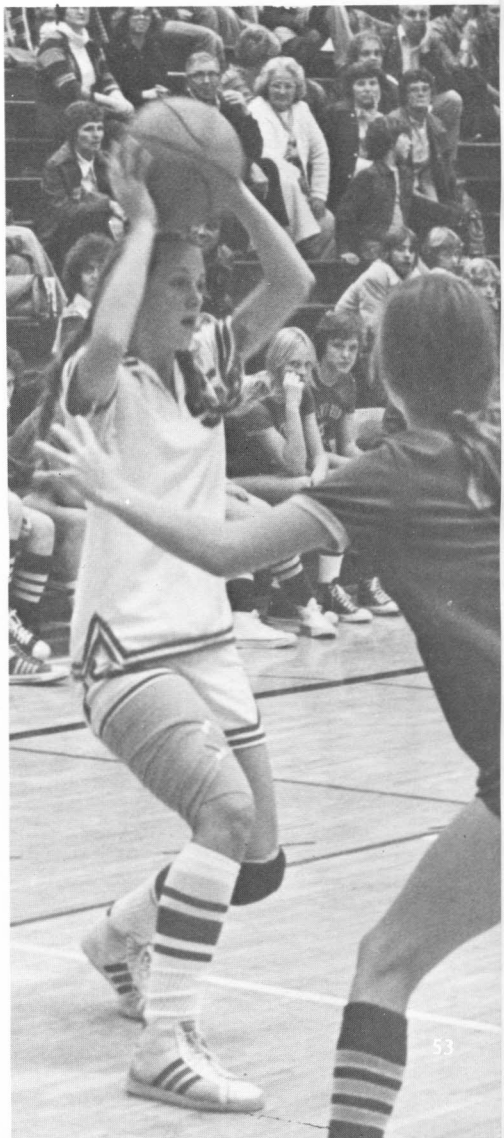
During the past 1977 season, the junior varsity basketball players, despite a losing record, demonstrated improvement throughout the season and showed promise for the years to come in the woman's program.

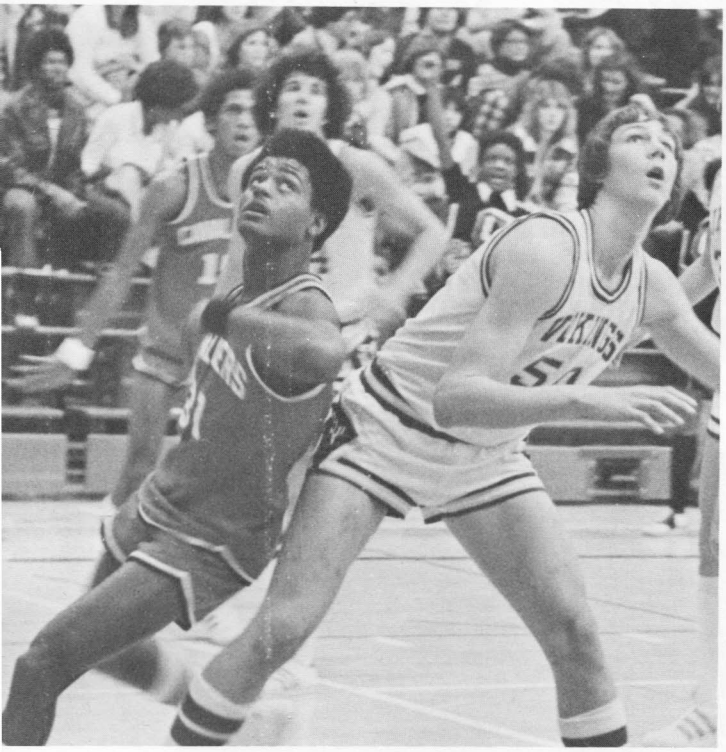
The addition of these jv players to next years varsity team should add to the team's potential.

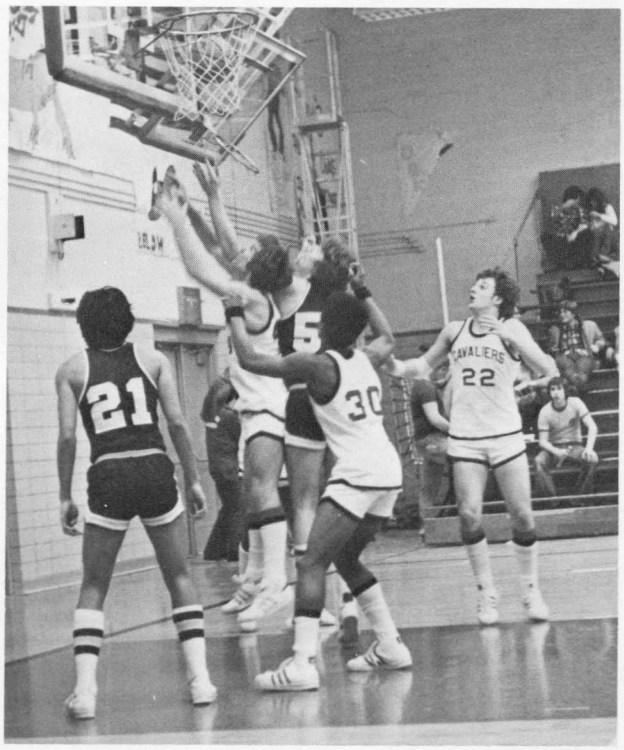
JVs Gain Valuable Experiance

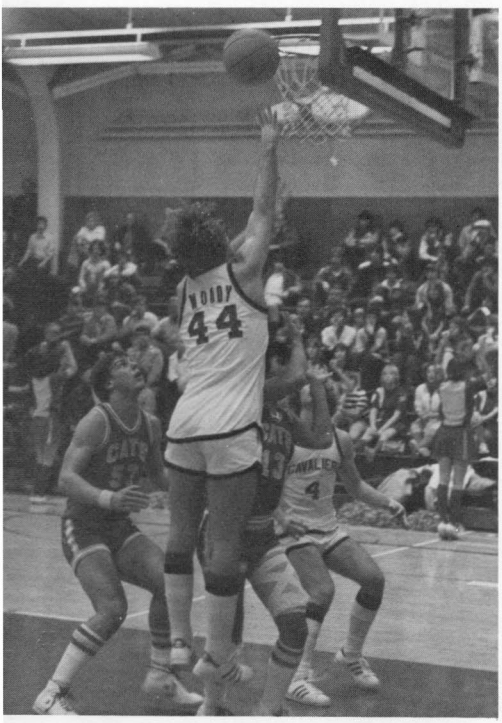




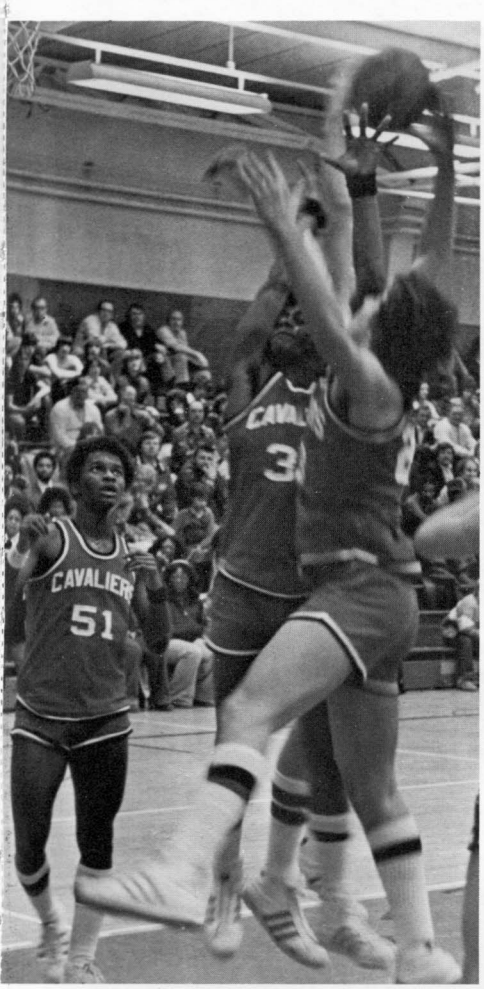
Varsity Basketball Struggles Through A Long Season

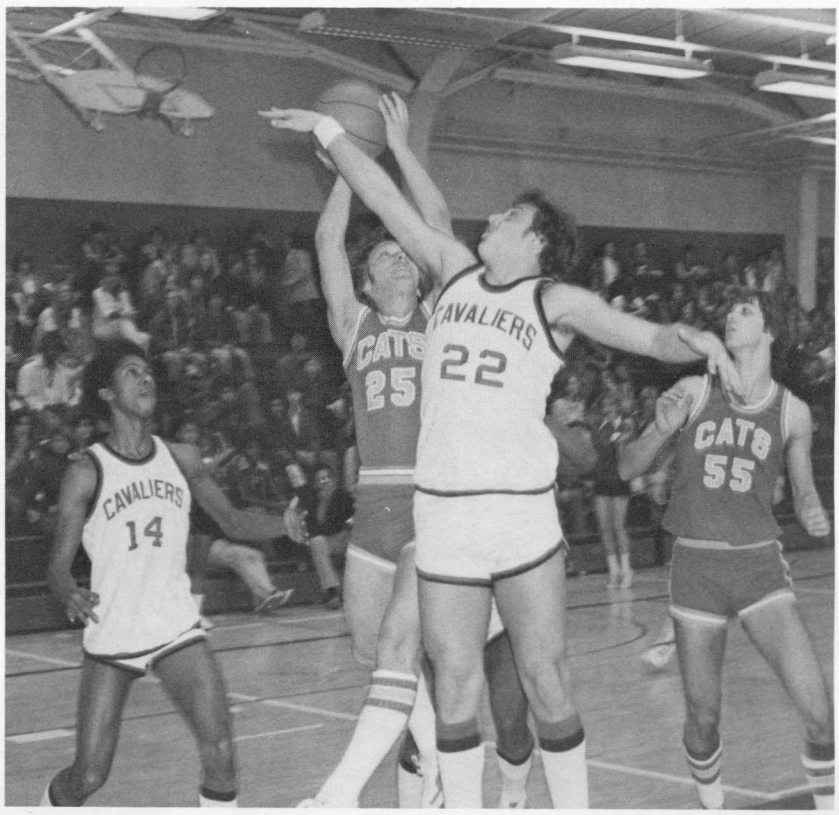


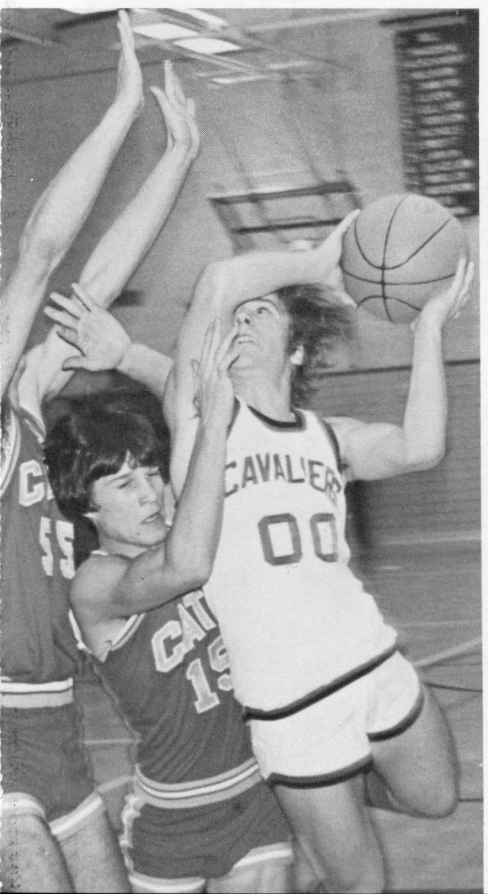


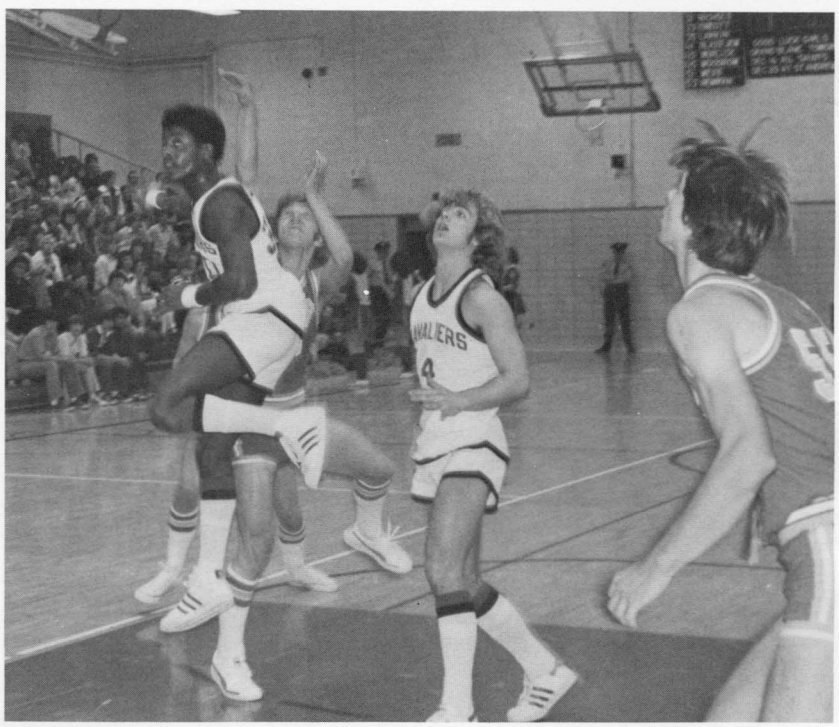


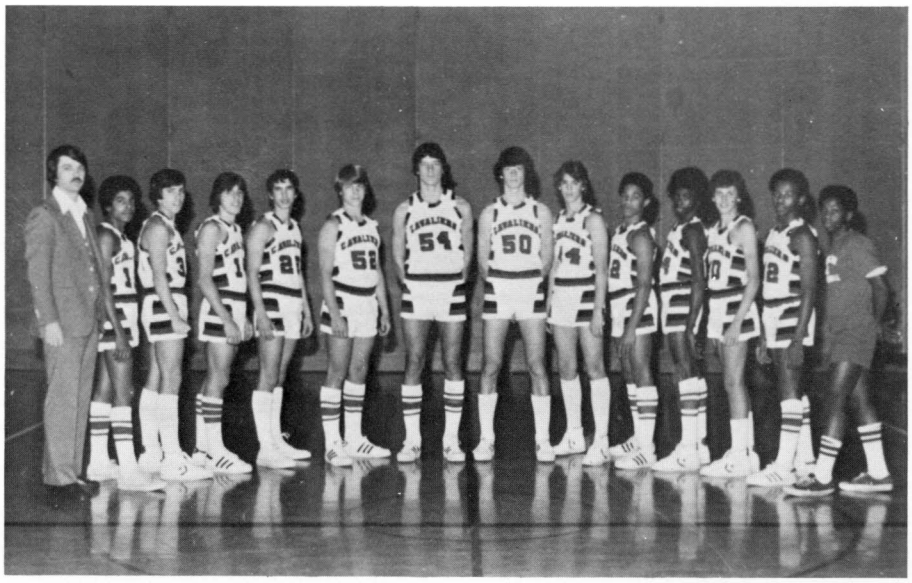
Despite some frustrating moments, the CHS representatives on the courts showed sparks of becoming a team to reckon with. However, these moments were few and CHS suffered through its first losing season in over 10 years.





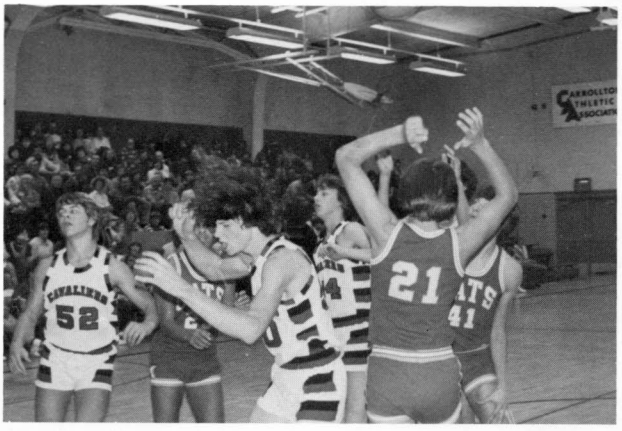


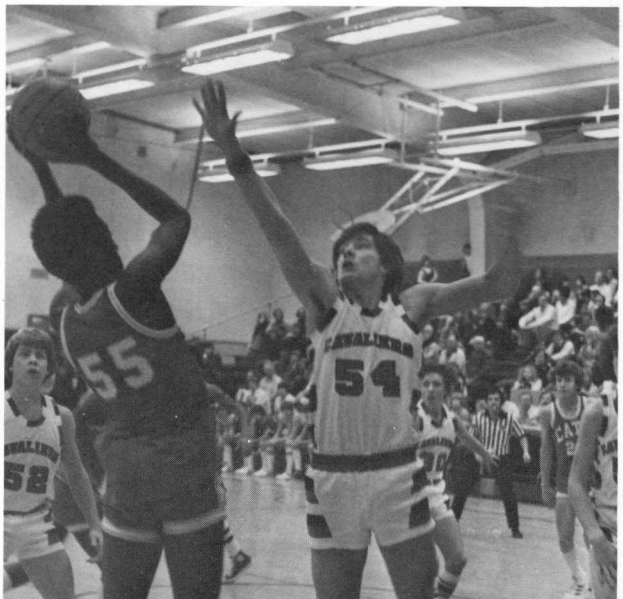




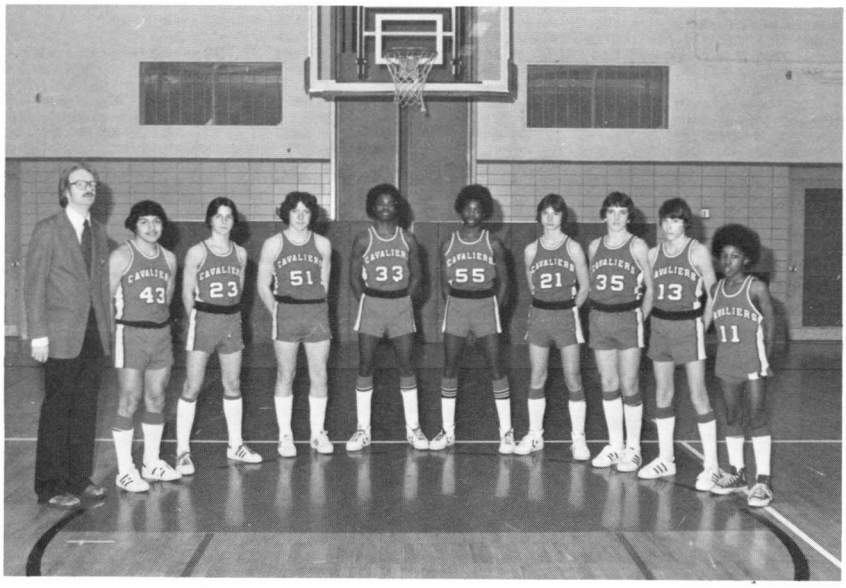
1977-78 JV BASKETBALL: coach Gary Zimmerman, Tom Smith, Gary Geese, Scott Green, Bill Cronk, Dave Hurst, Jeff Somerfield, Scott Dobis, Andy Lunning, Jerry Johnson, Bob Krueger, John Carter.

JV's Capture NBC Crown-Again!





The 1977-78 JV's experienced a successful season as they captured the NBC title and finished with a very respectable win-loss record. Jeff Somerfield led this year's team with record setting scoring as he tallied 38 points in one game to set an all-time JV scoring mark.



1977-78 FRESHMAN BASKETBALL: 'A' coach John Guttowsky, Paul Guzman, Mike O'Neil, Paul Miller, Terry Johnson, Jerry Johnson, Steve Kowalewski, Chip DeGrace, Joe Bell, Vincent Webb.

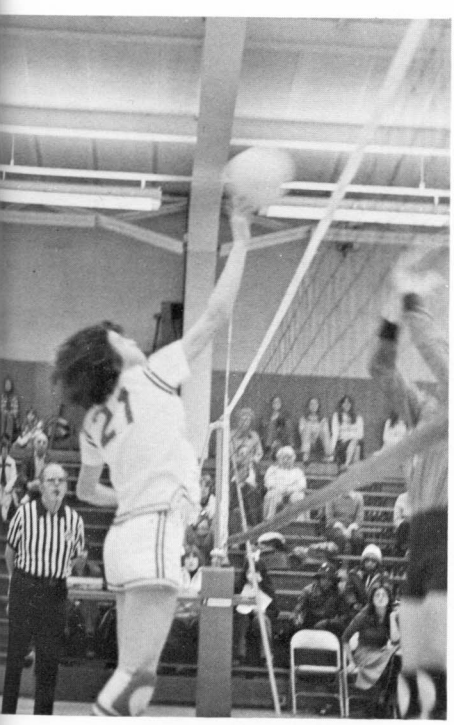
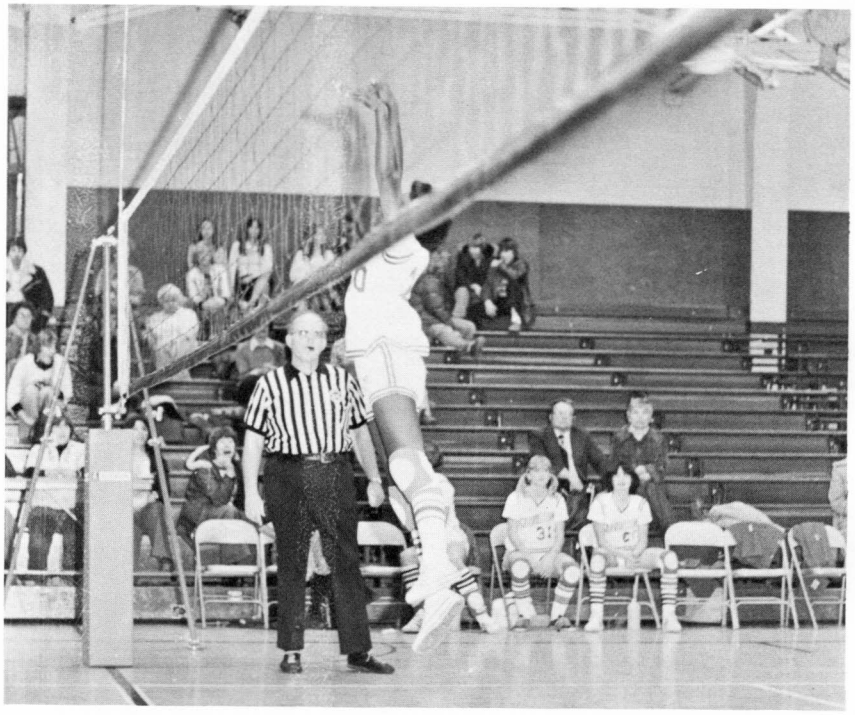
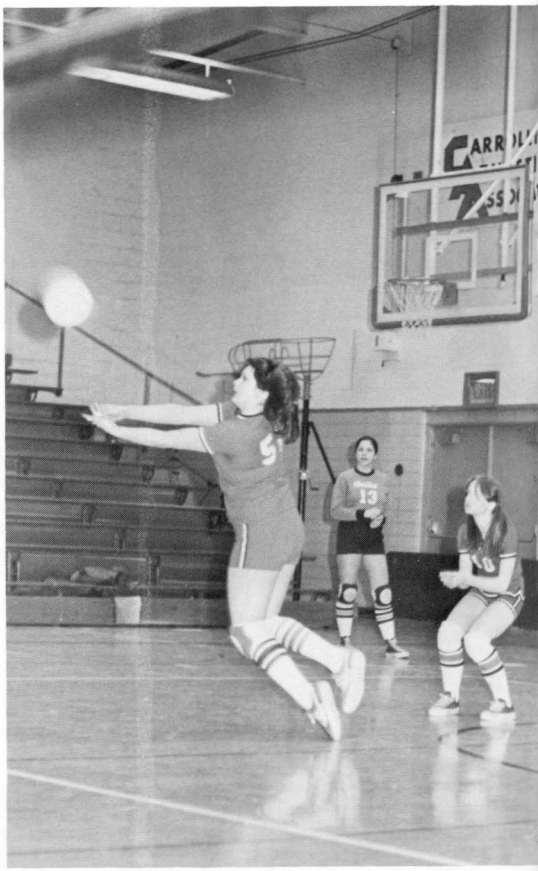
Tournament Loss Ends Frustrating Season





The volleyball season was a long one this year as the varsity suffered through a dismal losing schedule. Effort and team work were not enough to pull out the wins despite weeks and weeks of practice.

To the right, Mary Klienbriel returns a shot to win the first match of the season for the JV's. The bench replies to the final score.



JV's Prepare For The Future

Jazz Band Rejoins Us

After a few years absence, the Jazz band once again picked up the beat in the music department. With all rehersing done on the students own time, the group put together a few numbers with the purpose of teaching the students the art of improvosation.

For the Christmas Concert, the jazz band opened the show with their first performance of the season. The selections chosen gave the community a chance to hear a few upbeat tunes with the big band sound.

1977-78 VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Jill Kaczor, Loretta Lowery, Kathy Stadnika, Teresa Jones, Kit Grandel.

1977-78 JV CHEERLEADERS: Michelle Laviolette, Eileen Haight, Sarah Quelette, Kim Carey, Wendy Partlow.

1977-78 FRESHMAN CHEERLEADERS: Michelle Fischer, Rosa Perez, Sue Williamson, Lisa Askew, Lynn McCartney.
